

you need to allow more time. more disclosure and more public process on whether to lift restrictions on media cross-ownership. What this country doesn't need is just one, two or three owners of the media.